Monterey, CA – MPC Theatre Company's 2013 season opens with CINDERELLA, a show to be enjoyed by the whole family. Michele Vacca's lively adaptation of this timeless and beloved French tale weaves together humor and romance, along with a generous touch of magic. Cinderella's Fairy Godmother watches over her, providing several magical "coincidences" that affect the outcome of the story. When the King proclaims a ball will be held so that his son, Prince Philip, may find a wife, Frieda Frumpkin, (Cinderella's stepmother), is thrilled that her daughters, Thelma and Gertrude, are invited. When the invitations are delivered, Prince Philip "coincidentally" meets Cinderella in the garden. He admires the white roses, and suggests that she attend the ball. Frieda laughs at the idea; "Cinderella at the ball?" - What would she wear?

Portraying the title character in the MPC Storybook Theatre production of CINDERELLA is actress Ayanna Blount. She recently moved to the Monterey Peninsula from Pasadena to pursue her degree in Global Studies at CSU Monterey Bay, and is also currently taking Theatre Arts classes at MPC. In 2012 she received 4th place in California for her dramatic interpretation of Little Bee by Chris Cleave from the National Forensics League. Blount was most recently seen in MPC's 2012 production of A Christmas Carol.

"I'm extremely honored to play Cinderella. Hers is a story of humility and triumph. I admire how she embodies traditional values of hard work and kindness. She treats others with respect even when it's not given back to her. I think the world would be a better place if it was filled with Cinder-folk. Cinderella was a diamond in the rough. She wasn't born into royalty. She shone from the inside out. Of course it's every girl's dream to play a princess, and it's even better to portray one who's not shallow but truly deserving."

Among the exceptional cast are MPC Theatre Arts alum Mary Ann Lucido (Mama "Freida") and Faith Collins-Beety (Fairy Godmother) who attended the MPC Theatre Arts program together in the 70's where they studied under Morgan Stock. They are joined on this production by former classmates Dan Beck (MPC Theatre Technical Director and Cinderella Set Designer) and Gloria C. Mattos Hughes (Cinderella Costume Designer).

Faith Collins-Beety comments, “Being cast in CINDERELLA and working with wonderful, vibrant, passionate young actors, I am reminded of myself when I was at MPC and feel so blessed to be on stage with them. But I am equally blessed with the opportunity to work with consummate mature actors in our community that give of their time and talents as well as a director who carries on an MPC legacy of love, dedication and passion for the theater. The big difference that I have seen in the productions at MPC since I attended is that over the years, as one of the young actors commented during our first Little Women rehearsal last season, “It’s great to be in a play where the older characters are being played by older actors.” MPC is a community college and it is reflected in their staff, their students and their theatre.”

The CINDERELLA cast includes many Storybook Theatre veterans, Mathew Belnas* (Snow Queen), Sam Fife* (Snow Queen, Little Women, Princess and the Pea), Chelsea Kennedy* (Little Women), Michael Robbins (Ant and the Grasshopper), LJ Thomas (Princess and the Pea), Phil Hopfner (Little Women). And making their Storybook Theatre debut are Fred Harro, Hannah Schmidt,* and local favorite Teresa Del Piero.

* Signifies students currently enrolled in the MPC Theatre Arts degree program.

Once again we are pleased to have Laura Coté, MPC beginning acting teacher join us for her fourth season as a Storybook Theatre director. Coté directed last season’s extremely popular Little Women, and The Snow Queen in 2011, as well as the 2010 production of Sleeping Beauty. Coté, a mother of two young children, brings with her a true understanding of entertaining children, while at same time making sure the shows is enjoyable for adults as well. Storybook Theatre offers something for everyone.

The creative team includes Laura Coté (Director), D. Thomas Beck (Technical Director), Carey Crockett (Scenic Design), JoAnna Hobbs (Lighting Design), Gloria C. Mattos Hughes (Costume Designer), and Ana Maximoff (Props Design).
