

ABOUT THE CAST

CHRISTOPHER JOHN ANDERSON (Eugene) graduated from Monterey High School as 'Actor of the Year.' After attending MPC, he plans to continue his theatre studies at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Los Angeles. Christopher is the first recipient of MPC's Mary Lou Welch Drama Scholarship.

ELAINE DAVIS (Blanche) has performed in regional, stock, children's, and dinner theaters throughout the United States. Her Peninsula appearances include 'Pirates of Penzance' and the female version of 'The Odd Couple.'

TERESA DEL PIERO (Kate) received her B.F.A. from Boston University. She performed in both Southern and Northern California before settling in Monterey. Last seen on MPC's Main Stage as Tracy Lord in 'The Philadelphia Story,' Teresa serves on the Monterey County Film Commission.

ROLLIE DICK(Jack), an elementary school principal, has received acting honors from the Monterey County Theatre Alliance for his work at Hartnell's Western Stage. Performing in professional summer stock while attending college as a drama major, he has appeared in numerous community theatres in such varied roles as Starbuck in 'The Rainmaker' and Herbie in 'Gypsy.'

NICOLE DIFRANCO (Laurie) is a Monterey Peninsula native. She is 13 years old and has played in several local school productions, most recently in MPC's 'Oliver!.' Her hobbies are dancing, acting, singing, and playing the flute. She loves to act, and hopes to be in many more shows.

HENRY GUEVARA (Stanley) received his B.A. in Acting at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. His first appearance on the Peninsula was in last year's MPC at Cherry Hall's production of 'Waiting for Godot.' Last year he performed in the Pacific Conservatory of the Performing Arts Theatrefest's Summer Season.

JESSICA ANN STEVENSON (Nora) was last seen at MPC as Louisa in 'The Fantastiks.' After 'Brighton Beach Memoirs,' she is looking forward to performing in 'You Can't Take It With You.' Jessica received most of her acting training at the Children's Experimental Theatre in Carmel, and would like to thank them for their challenges and support.
